NEW HOTELS IN LONDON

Tempted? Please ask Brook Green UK DMC for more information.
Opened in October 2018, Bankside is another hotel launching in the South Bank. In a six-storey glass structure within the One Blackfriars development, Bankside Hotel offers a sleek and modern hub close to Blackfriars Bridge. The hotel has a focus on arts and crafts, with a curated arts collection displayed across the 161 rooms and communal areas, and it also features a space permanently dedicated to crafts.

For planners, the hotel offers four spaces for hire, including three meetings rooms, two of which can be combined, and the White Box, a 196 sqm space able to hold 180 guests.
Drawing on the legacy of the greats who stayed here in decades past - and an inspiration to those who are yet to write their own story - the Hard Rock Hotel London stands alone as a haven for music lovers and cultural explorers everywhere.

Built in one of London’s most central locations - on the corner of Oxford Street and Park Lane - the hotel puts guests just steps away from the very best England’s capital has to offer.

Catering to the needs of both business and leisure travellers, Hard Rock Hotel London boasts 900 stylish rooms and suites, together with two vibrant bars and a lively Hard Rock Cafe®.
Discover 129 stylish guest rooms that combine accessible luxury with a unique feel-good factor at Lincoln Plaza London. From the bespoke shelving units made of blackened steel and antique brass through to the marble rainfall showers, all elements work together to create a feeling of relaxed richness.

Guests can make the most of the hotel’s 24-hour fitness centre, complete with a pool, sauna and steam room. With more than 465 sq m of event space across seven meeting rooms, Lincoln Plaza London is perfect for all manner of business or social gatherings. The hotel is operated under Curio: A collection by Hilton brand.
After an extensive refurbishment, YTL Hotels recently reopened The Academy, a collection of five townhouses, and a member of the Small Luxury Hotels of the World collection. The hotel has 50 guest rooms and includes several food and drink options, including The Courtyard, where guests can sample the hotel’s afternoon tea. The Refectory, where breakfast is served, can accommodate informal meetings and small gatherings.
The hotel, located in the heart of Mayfair on exclusive Grosvenor Square, has undergone a multimillion-pound redevelopment following its closure in June 2018.

Designed by Goddard Littlefair, the hotel will offer 257 luxuriously appointed guest rooms, many with views over Grosvenor Square, as well as 51 highly-curated and beautifully designed suites, which will reflect the property’s origin as a sophisticated and elegant London private residence. Moments from Bond Street’s exclusive retailers, the green spaces of Hyde Park and London’s famous landmarks, Grosvenor Square has a rich history housing the capital’s aristocracy since the early eighteenth century.

The Biltmore, Mayfair will be the First European Hotel to join Hilton’s New Luxury Collection – LXR Hotels & Resorts.
Ideally located to explore the Bankside and South Bank areas of London, The Dixon is a new boutique hotel opened in late 2018. Located in the former Tower Bridge Magistrates Court, this Grade II-listed building contains 193 rooms and suites, a bar and a restaurant. The property also includes two event rooms suitable for small events, while nearby Tate Modern and Borough Market would make a great addition to a social programme.

With an award-winning combination of authentic design, carefully-curated amenities and smart technology, The Dixon is one-of-a-kind in its locality.
Set in London’s Leicester square, The Londoner is a new boutique hotel on a super scale and the first of its kind. As a pioneering hotel, The Londoner embraces the energy of the West End through its masterful architecture and design, sophisticated social spaces and its collection of distinctive restaurants and lounges.

The hotel provides intuitive service alongside spectacular interior design, delivering a one of its kind premium luxury offering by inviting each visitor to curate their own experiences. An afternoon in the urban spa, an evening savouring the atmosphere of the rooftop bar or a bespoke event offering, The Londoner presents a vibrant experience for its individual guests. Experience the 350 exquisite rooms and suites, tailored lifestyle facilities infused with London character and a variety of meeting and event spaces including a state-of-the-art grand ballroom, which can accommodate up to 864 guests.
Set across six floors, The Stratford is a 145-room design hotel with interiors by Space Copenhagen, the design duo behind the legendary NOMA. The rooms feature serene pastel tones, natural timbers and elegant stone bathrooms fusing Scandinavian style with old-world opulence. From the magnificent triple-height lobby and the grand fireplace, to the dynamic all-day brasserie and six-story height central atrium, The Stratford is a hotel that does things differently.
Private members’ club Soho House has turned the old BBC headquarters in White City into its latest club and hotel in London. The property’s 45 bedrooms, just like the hotel’s two restaurants, are accessible to non-members, while the club’s gym can be used by members and hotel guests.

The three screening rooms at the White City House’s cinema, Electric, are also available to non-members for private hire.
NEW RESTAURANTS IN LONDON

Tempted? Please ask Brook Green UK DMC for more information.
Situated on the entire third floor of the Cheese grater building, this venue is the long-awaited follow-up of its twin restaurant in Soho. It will seat an impressive 190 guests over two dining rooms, as well as three private rooms with their own reception areas overlooking the City of London.

And like its glamorous twin, this venue will keep the details that made the first venue so likeable; all the seating will be in booths and they keep those famous “Press For Champagne” buttons – except now that it’s in the city, the Champagne can be ordered in Magnums, Jeroboams, and Methuselahs…

FINE DINING IN STRATFORD

This restaurant offering east London a high-end dining experience underpinned by authentic old-school hospitality. Former Chiltern Firehouse Head Chef, Patrick Powell’s menu is modern European – hyper-seasonal, product-driven dishes alongside classic cocktails and inventive small plates. A restaurant with a taste for the spectacular, the main room evokes the timeless grandeur of a Scandinavian farmhouse – featuring an open kitchen, sweeping stone bar and rich, stained oak furniture. The unique garden terrace, designed by Randle Siddeley, offers intimate dining space amongst an elevated meadow of wild flowers, pine tree canopies and a huge grill and fire pit.
